

RLNC Board Notice

The Red Lake Nation College (RLNC) Board of Regents is seeking nominations from interested Red Lake Tribal Members to fill vacancies for two RLNC Board of Regents positions. The two positions will be open for application from 9/1/24, to 9/30/24, at 5pm.

The two RLNC Board positions are for seats from the following two communities:

- One Board seat from a Member from the Little Rock Community, for 4 Yr. Term.
- One Board seat from a Member from the Redby Community, for a 4 Yr. Term.

Qualifications of potential RLNC Board Members include:

- Each candidate for membership will demonstrate a long-term interest in education and job training.
- Each candidate for membership will demonstrate a high degree of ethical standards and community service.
- Each candidate for membership will be an enrolled member in the Red Lake Band of Chippewa Indians.
- All candidates for membership will have successfully completed at least 48 semester hours at the post-secondary level, unless waived by the Board.
- Each candidate for membership shall have at least a general knowledge of post-secondary education.
- Each candidate must be able to work cooperatively, and as a strong team member that is supportive of all other RLNC board members and current RLNC administrative leadership, and our overall, positive progress as a College. All RLNC Team Members must have a positive, cooperative and collaborative outlook and approach to working with people.
- Each candidate for membership, excluding the RLNC student representative Board Member, will be at least twenty-five years of age.
- Two (2) members of the Board of Regents shall be elected from each of the four voting districts of the Red Lake Indian Reservation; a Red Lake Nation College student, elected annually by the Student Council of the Red Lake Nation College to serve as their Student Council President, shall also sit on the Board as a non-voting member.

Selection of the two new Board Members will be by election and vote among the current Board Members (excluding the two Board Members up for election) following the above-listed qualifications. Any individual interested in RLNC Board Membership must complete a nomination application located on the RLNC website at <https://www.rlnc.education/employment-opportunities>. To apply, send your materials to Floyd Jourdain, Director of Equity, Cultural Education, and Archives, at floyd.jourdain@rlnc.edu.
