

Red Lake Nation College
Recycling Intern Job Description

Position: Recycling Intern

Supervisor: Tami Nendick, Science and Environmental Studies Instructor

Hours Available: 5-10 hours per week

Wage: $15 per hour

In-person or remote: In person at Red Lake

Deadline: Open until filled

No previous experience required. Will be trained on the job. Must have own vehicle.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Essential duties include, but are not limited to:
  - Collect recycling at Red Lake Nation College building weekly and bring to recycling center just south of the Reservation (25 miles round trip - mileage will be covered as part of the internship)
  - Work with staff to improve recycling messaging and participation at RLNC
  - Work with staff to arrange to collect some recycling from K-12 schools
- Other duties as assigned.

Preferred Skills/Qualifications: Ability to work independently

- Punctuality
- Organizational and communication skills
- Cultural sensitivity with community members

Education:

- Must be currently enrolled at Red Lake Nation College.

To Apply:

- Send an email with your RLNC Internship Application to tami.nendick@rlnc.edu